

Ali Fahir Ozer, MD., Professor of Neurosurgery

Dr. Ozer is currently working as a

Neurosurgeon and academic staff at the Koc

University, Department of Neurosurgery, and at the VKV American Hospital (Istanbul, Turkey). His clinical interest focuses on spine surgery.

Dr. Ozer's research focuses on biomechanics of spine, and dynamic stabilization of spine. He has authored or co-authored well over 70 papers.

He is the member of advisory board and reviewer of many scientific journals. Currently, he is a member of TNS, ISAS, NASS, AOSpine, and Eurospine.

